NOTES

Congo (Brazzaville): The Leopoldville government evidently is providing some small arms to dissidents planning a coup against President Massamba-Debat's left-leaning regime in Brazzaville. The dissidents appear to have little chance of success at this time, and any such attempt will not only aggravate existing tensions between the two Congos but also probably push the Brazzaville regime further toward the left. Brazzaville's foreign minister told the US ambassador on 10 August that his government would hold the US and any other powers supporting Leopoldville responsible for any "aggression" against Brazzaville.
